This will be the location where we will meet to return home.

The afternoon and evening is yours.

Experience a carriage ride through Central Park while enjoying the sights and sound of the holiday season. Have a glass of wine or beer at Tavern on the Green. See a show---The show at the music hall is just the ticket to have this time of year.

Catch an afternoon matinee at a Broadway show.

We will be collecting a tip for Driver of bus on the return home.

Christmas in New York!

Here are some other choices. Enjoy!

American Museum of Natural History – Located at Central Park West at 79th Street.

Open daily 10:00AM –5:45 PM. You will find more than 40 exhibition halls exploring the universe and the diversity of life on Earth.

The museum is home to the world's largest collection of fossils, a planetarium, and an IMAX theater.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art – Located at 5th Avenue and 82nd Street.

Open Saturday 9:30AM-9: 00PM. In formation since 1870, the Metropolitan Museum's collection now contains more than two million works of art from all points of the compass, ancient through modern times, including one of the finest collections of Egyptian art outside of Cairo.

St. Patrick's Cathedral- 5th Avenue between 50th and 51st Streets

Use your day for more sightseeing or shopping. Your chance to have lunch in Little Italy, or visit Chinatown. Bargains will be everywhere Empire State Building--(Top of the world) Catch a double decker bus and just tour the city that way. Get on and off as you choose.

Food will be everywhere--so as my mamma said...EAT!
